

Dr. phil. Susanne Lerch art historian, scholarly assistant PA to Dr Sladeczek

A trained silver smith, Ms Lerch holds a PhD in art history and therewith combines the physical side of the art world as a craftswoman and the academic merits of a scholar. The topic of her doctoral thesis of 2013 was the evaluation of the estate of artist Gertrud Debrunner. She then refined her professional skills working for museums, an auction house and a publishing company. She lives near Berne.
